Company Name

Dear Hiring Manager

I am writing to express my interest in the position at Company Name. With my background in machine learning engineering and data science leadership, I believe I can make significant contributions to your team.

Throughout my career, I have demonstrated a proven track record of building scalable ML infrastructure, driving adoption of machine learning across organizations, and delivering business impact through data-driven solutions. My experience includes leading cross-functional teams, architecting robust ML pipelines, and implementing MLOps best practices to accelerate model deployment.

I am particularly drawn to Company Name because of [specific reason about the company/position]. I am confident that my skills in [relevant skills matching job description] align well with what you're looking for in this role.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my background and expertise can benefit your team. Thank you for considering my application.

Sincerely,

Chris Addy
